SACRED HEART OF JESUS

A Merger of St. Gregory the Great and St. Margaret Mary Parishes

*... "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried
about many things.
There is need of only one thing.
Mary has chosen the better part,
and it will not be taken from her."*

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time ~ July 18, 2010

...from the voices of the children

The children have shared these "Good Deeds for God." They are written exactly as the children presented them. We regret that space does not permit us to record all of the "deeds" the children shared this week.

- I gave up going to camp out with my family to volunteer at the St. Gregs festival.
- I helped a kid at camp on the computer.
- Sharing a toy I won with my little sister,
- Helped Mom fix counter tops!

Thank you, children, for sharing these with us.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK ...

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Another festival weekend is upon us. I hope that everyone will try to spend some time at our festival. It is a wonderful opportunity to meet fellow parishioner, have a delicious meal and support your parish. There is something here for everyone. Please come and join in the fun.

I also realize that parking is very difficult for Mass this weekend and I appreciate your understanding and patience. Thank you for understanding.

I have also received comments concerning the sound system in the Church. As I had promised the St. Margaret Mary Parishioners during our town hall meeting, we are working very diligently on the problem.

A couple of weeks ago the system underwent a programming problem. One of the technicians said that, "It lost its mind." Although that is not very technical, I can think of no better way to describe what happened. I do apologize for the inconvenience that this has caused.

Be assured that the system continues to be worked on with the very real possibility of being replaced. Thank you for your patience as we strive to rectify the problem.

May God's blessings be yours this week.

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION ...

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

We've all been to banquets where the waiters and waitresses scurry around to get the food served as quickly as possible. Whether it's a small funeral luncheon, a larger wedding reception, or a conference banquet with a thousand or more diners, the servers have their plan of 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

We've all been to banquets where the waiters and waitresses scurry around to get the food served as quickly as possible. Whether it's a small funeral luncheon, a larger wedding reception, or a conference banquet with a thousand or more diners, the servers have their plan of how to deliver a hot meal in as efficient a manner as possible. A food service manager can explain the choreography involved in training a staff and the preparation that takes place for each meal based on the number and courses of meals being served. Even the occasional request for hot tea instead of coffee-that ubiquitous drink-is planned for and diagrammed. Every hospitality manager wants the service to go well.

In today's Gospel, Martha is a bit like that nervous hospitality manager. Jesus was a well-known prophet with a significant following. He was welcomed by Martha at her home. Luke never says why. Did she have the biggest house? Was she hoping for some momentary fame in the village? Was she a relative to one of the many disciples? Did she know Jesus from an earlier encounter? Or did she bake the best lemon meringue pie? (Well, we know it wasn't that one.) In any event, Jesus was there, and Martha certainly wanted to make a good impression just like any host or hostess.

At first blush, we might think Jesus' rebuke to Martha as a bit of a put down. Almost like telling folks at a conference banquet, "Listen to the speaker; ignore the waiters." But that is exactly what a good hospitality manager aims for, service personnel that are so competent that they are unobtrusive. And maybe that is the lesson we can take from the Gospel. We are to perform our service to God and neighbor in and unobtrusive, even unheralded, manner. We go about our lives not bragging about what good we've done. We just do it.

PSR REGISTRATION FOR 2010-2011 ...Attention Parents!

Although we're in the middle of summer, it's not too soon to be thinking about your child's religious education this Fall.

All students in grades one through eight who are not enrolled in a Catholic school need to attend Sacred Heart of Jesus' Parish School of Religion. Student registration forms for the PSR are now available in the Parish Office. Tuition is $100.00 per family ($90.00 if paid before August 1, 2010.)

Once again this year, the Parish School of Religion is in need of several classroom aides. If you feel called to help teach the Faith to the children of the parish, please contact PSR Principal, Tom Kelly, for more information at 216-382-3614.

Welcome Weekend
Food Collection

On August 28, from 9:30-11:30 a.m., Notre Dame College students will be visiting South Euclid and Lyndhurst homes to collect non-perishable food items. Food may be left out on the front porch for the students to pick up or the students will knock on your door. Either way... you are making a big difference for people who need our help. The food will then be donated to the Heights Emergency Food Center. For more information, please contact Anthony Camino at 216-373-5387 or acamino@ndc.edu.
